Our Vision

Developing Projects in Partnership with the Public Sector

Tilal focuses on strengthening collaboration with government entities to support and implement residential projects aligned with Saudi Vision 2030. Through this partnership, Tilal aims to contribute to community development and foster sustainable economic growth

Developing Integrated Communities

Tilal strives to build strategic partnerships with the private sector to develop joint projects that deliver added value to all stakeholders. This is achieved by providing innovative real estate solutions that contribute to the growth of the sector and enhance its role in comprehensive development

Developing Major and Comprehensive Cities

Tilal is committed to its leading role in developing large-scale, integrated, and sustainable cities that embody the concepts of "live, work, and play." This is achieved through partnerships with both the public and private sectors

Investing in the Real Estate Sector

Tilal aspires to be a leading investor in the Kingdom's real estate sector, aligning with its vision of developing residential and mixed-use projects

Quality of Life

The Quality of Life Program is a fundamental part of Tilal's vision, contributing to improving individuals' lifestyles by creating vibrant and sustainable environments that meet the needs of both citizens and residents. This program supports the Kingdom's position as a global tourist destination and boosts the economy, aligning with Vision 2030.

At Tilal, we are committed to providing integrated residential communities that combine innovative design with exceptional services. This enhances the appeal of our projects, making them the ideal choice for individuals seeking a better life. Through this commitment, we actively contribute to achieving Vision 2030 and elevating the quality of life in the Kingdom.

Tilal Life is not just a magazine, but a comprehensive platform for creativity and urban culture.

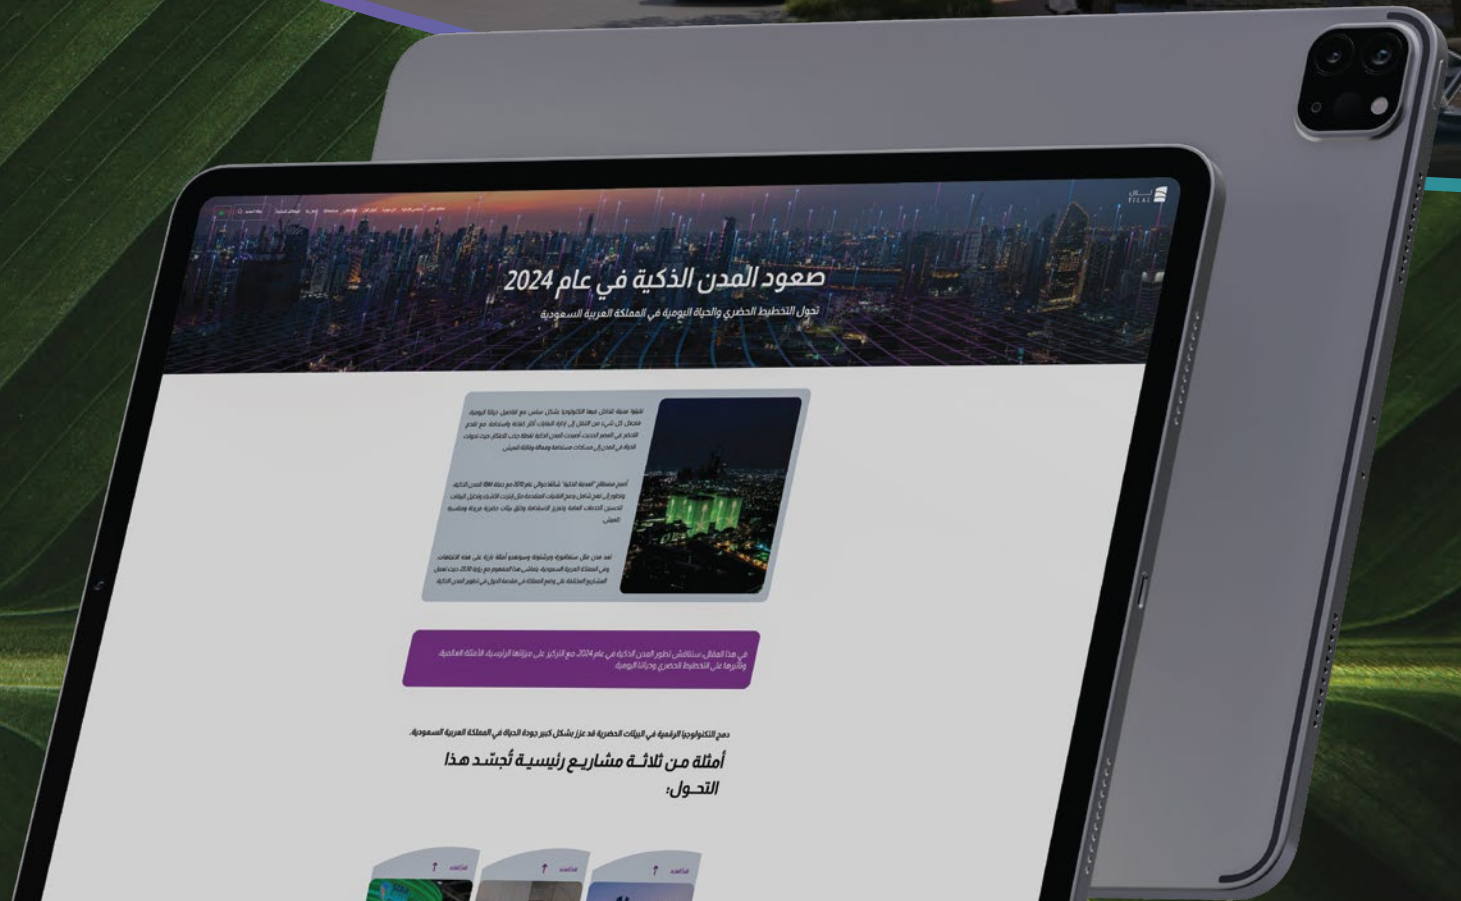

Tilal Life

Tilal Life is an electronic magazine that highlights the aesthetics of architecture, urban design, and human-centered concepts, exploring the cultural dimensions that shape the identity of urban communities. The magazine aims to offer creative and inspiring content that raises awareness of sustainable design and emphasizes the importance of human connectivity within the built environment.

In line with the spirit of Tilal Life, we established Ragheed Podcast, named after the concept of "a comfortable life," offering a platform for dialogue with prominent figures in the fields of architecture, design, and culture. The podcast focuses on exploring inspiring stories and experiences that contribute to building balanced communities living in harmony and prosperity.

Additionally, there is the Mulham Blog, which discusses ideas that encourage innovation in design and enhancing quality of life.
